

ONLY EIGHT DAYS REMAIN

TODAY'S PROGRAMME.

9 a. m.—Arrival at Oregon Short Line station.
10 a. m.—Arrival at Fort Douglas, via carriages.
Carriages will convey visitors and committee to joint city and county building and Main street business houses, arriving at Beehive house about 11:30—Reception at Beehive house by President Knott.
12:00—Luncheon at Alta club.
1 p. m.—Recital at Assembly hall.
1:45 p. m.—Party will leave Assembly hall via special street car, furnished by Salt Lake City railway, for Fifth West and West South Temple, arriving there to take Salt Lake & Los Angeles special train for Saltair at 2:15 p. m.
4 to 5:45—Business men's reception at the Knutsford.
6 p. m.—Leave for Denver via Rio Grande Western.

SEVERAL carloads of millionaires will be landed in Salt Lake this morning. They are members of the commercial clubs of Chicago, Boston, Cincinnati and St. Louis, the majority coming from the big Illinois city. For a day they will be guests of Salt Lake, and in the evening will be whirled on their way to Denver, and thence to Chicago.

The list of prospective visitors includes some of the best known business men in the country—men whose capital and enterprise have helped make the cities great that they now call their homes. They are touring the west primarily for pleasure, but they still have something of an eye to business, studying conditions and making the acquaintance of customers as they flit from city to city.

The Utah Association of Credit Men will have the visitors in tow today, and will try to show them the city to as good an advantage as is possible on a Sunday in March. The weather man has promised bright skies and balmy air, in spite of the fact that it is now the equinoctial period when Chicagoans would naturally expect blizzards and thunderstorms stirred in together.

The visitors will arrive from the coast on their special train over the Oregon Short Line at 9 o'clock in the forenoon, and will meet by the entertainment committee, composed of the following: Geo. A. Odell, chairman; Governor Heber M. Wells, Mayor Ezra Thompson, W. A. McCormick, J. A. Graham, C. S. Struvel, George A. Snow, H. B. Fernald, Thomas R. Cutler, A. Quigley, Heber J. Grant, George A. Lowe, J. E. Dooly, J. G. McDonald, George Y. Wallace, C. S. Burton, S. V. Schelp, Edward Merrill, L. S. Hills, T. G. Webber and Spencer Clawson.

They will be taken in carriages to various points of interest in the city, to Fort Douglas and Saltair, will be given a luncheon at the Alta club and receptions at the Beehive house and the Knutsford. They will leave at 6 o'clock in the evening for the coast via the Rio Grande Western.

The following message was received last evening by Landlord G. S. Holmes of the Knutsford:
"Bols, Ida, March 23, 1901.—Chicago Commercial club special will arrive Salt Lake 9 a. m. Sunday. Souvenirs received. J. J. GLESSNER."

The souvenirs are programmes printed on Utah silk, and appropriately bound and illustrated.

Chairman George T. Odell of the entertainment committee received the following telegram last evening:
"Huntington, Ore., March 23, 1901.—Letter received through Mr. Coman, and is very gratifying to us. We send our compliments. Hope to meet you at Ogden. J. J. GLESSNER."

This is in reply to a letter from Mr. Odell telling of the arrangements for entertaining the club while in Salt Lake.

It is expected that flags will be floating on business houses and public buildings when the visitors arrive.

Telegrams received last night left a doubt whether Robert T. Lincoln, Marshall Field, General Wesley Merritt and Bernard A. Eckhart of Chicago would be with the party on its arrival here. Nearly all the original members will come, however, and they make a distinguished company.

to keep its name prominently before the outside world.

Franklin H. Head has been called by the Chicago Commercial club to be president of the club.

Depew of Chicago. Like the New York Tribune, the Chicago Tribune is a business concern outside of the Illinois metropolis. His southern California interest, and his position as a member of the Chicago Commercial club, are under a trip to the coast once a year to look after them.

Mr. Head is also prominent in public societies, is a member of the club of opera, and is considered a general all around good fellow by those who have the pleasure of his acquaintance.

FRANKLIN H. HEAD.

William T. Baker, capitalist and grain dealer, has been prominently identified with Chicago affairs for many years.

He was connected with the organization of the Chicago Commercial club, and has been president of the Board of Trade of the Chicago Civic Federation and of the Chicago Commercial club.

Mr. Baker is a member of the Chicago Commercial club, and has been president of the Board of Trade of the Chicago Civic Federation and of the Chicago Commercial club.

JAMES H. ECKHART.

James H. Eckhart has had a great career as a financier for so young a man. When a young lawyer, he was successful in business, and trying to build up a practice in the little town of Princeton, Ill., he was appointed by the state to be a member of the Illinois State Bar Association.

Mr. Eckhart is a member of the Chicago Commercial club, and has been president of the Board of Trade of the Chicago Civic Federation and of the Chicago Commercial club.

MAJOR GENERAL MERRITT.

Major General Wesley Merritt is a well known figure in the military world. He was a member of the Chicago Commercial club, and has been president of the Board of Trade of the Chicago Civic Federation and of the Chicago Commercial club.

JOHN V. FARWELL, JR.

John V. Farwell, Jr., is a well known figure in the business world. He was a member of the Chicago Commercial club, and has been president of the Board of Trade of the Chicago Civic Federation and of the Chicago Commercial club.

JOHN H. CLARK.

John H. Clark is a well known figure in the business world. He was a member of the Chicago Commercial club, and has been president of the Board of Trade of the Chicago Civic Federation and of the Chicago Commercial club.

CHRISTOPHER HOTZ.

Christopher Hotz has a grievance which has followed him since childhood and will probably follow him to his grave. When he was a youth, although the boys almost invariably added a syllable to his name and called him "Christophe," he has been fighting that name "Christopher" ever since.

Mr. Hotz is a well known figure in the business world. He was a member of the Chicago Commercial club, and has been president of the Board of Trade of the Chicago Civic Federation and of the Chicago Commercial club.

BIG SUGAR COMBINE IS TO BE LAUNCHED

New York, March 23.—The World says: "What may be the first step in the consolidation of the various large sugar interests in the island of Cuba, or the purchase of these interests by American capitalists has been taken. The Chapparral Sugar company of Cuba, with offices in this city, has placed contracts in this country aggregating over $2,000,000 for the equipment of the largest sugar plant ever built in Cuba.

The company, of which ex-Congressman Hawley of Texas is president, and in which H. H. Howland, of New York, and Theodore Havemeyer are largely interested, has acquired 60,000 acres of land in the eastern portion of Cuba. Nearly 10,000 acres of this land are under cultivation, while on the rest the work of planting sugar cane will be immediately begun. This enormous planting is without precedent in the history of Cuba.

With the exception of 800 acres in the immediate vicinity of the factory location, 10,000 acres under growth are being divided among colonists who cultivate their fields and deliver the cane to the mill for a return of 4 per cent. A railroad thirty miles long will be constructed on the estate and grinding operations are to begin next December, by which time the collection of nearly 35,000 tons of cane will be ready to be handled. The mills will have a daily capacity for grinding of 3,000 tons of cane. Power will be derived from a steam plant of 6,000 horse power.

refuse to countenance its pursuits if he were their beneficiary, he can call his opposition to them by the honorable title of public spirit. And, it may be added that most of the actual reform in trust abuses has been thus made from inside, by the self-respect of their owners.

The social and political instinct of mankind is so strong that people are led under instruction to do things which are against their own personal convenience, and even against their own interest, in order to subserve the needs of the community. Public sentiment is the name given to the feeling which gives effect to these virtues of patriotism.

The question is often asked what constitutes the essential mark of a gentleman, as distinct from the accident of birth and of clothing and of speech. I believe it is to be found in the readiness to accept trusts, even when they are personally disadvantageous—the readiness to subordinate a man's own convenience and desires to a social rule. The rule may be a good one or a bad one; but it is an authority which the gentleman accepts of his own free will, without waiting for anyone to compel him to accept it.

To the extent that he does this, he not only proves himself a gentleman, but proves himself capable of self-government. In this sense I believe that the great body of the American people are gentlemen, and are therefore capable of self-government. The possibility of maintaining democracy is due to the fact that increased readiness to accept self-imposed burdens has gone hand in hand with increase of social and political power. It is for the young men who are just growing up to carry into the larger worlds of business and legislation the spirit which will subordinate personal convenience to collective honors. In this development of the principle of political trusteeship lies the hope of the republic for its future.

his intention to blast stumps. Later a violent explosion alarmed the neighbors and on investigation they found the few scattered remains of the stumped man. An inquest established the fact that the deceased had placed the explosive in a large stump, at the time he was cutting it, and that his wife is thought to be the cause.
